GOAL TO GO!

The concentrated Membership Mo bilization period of January and Feb ruary is past, but the goal is far fro attained.

For 1967 the International Societ must receive $43,000 in membership — individual and society — to me its budget. At the end of Februa only 59% of this goal had bee reached. This means that 41% — ap proximately $17,500 — must yet b secured to meet 1967's needs. And th 1967 budget is a minimum budge every dollar is needed.

Individuals and societies who hav not yet renewed their membershi are urged to do so at once. Ne memberships are invited, too. Th financial support of every Endeavor is urgently needed now.

Remember — any time is membe ship time.

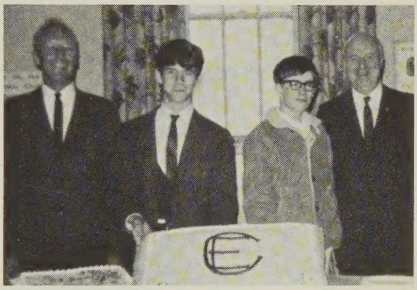
A Birthday Week To Remember

THIS AND THE FOLLOWING THREE PAGES CONTAIN A REVIEW OF ACTIVITIES FOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WEEK 1967.

THIS BEAUTIFUL ANNIVERSARY CAKE was the center of attraction at Detroit Union's birthday banquet February 4 at Grace Reformed Church, Allen Park, Michigan. Richard Lawson led the singspiration, the Sholtz Brothers sang, and the guest speaker was Rev. Roy Adelberg.



BIRTHDAY CAKES at the Seattle-Tacoma Area (Washington) district rally January 29 were prepared by youth of the host Queen Anne Community Church. Displaying the cakes are (from left) John Miller, youth sponsor, Brian Smith, Doug Hortsfield (who baked one of them!), and Ray LeRiche, state area vice-president.

WITH MAYOR FRANK E. MANN of Alexandria, Virginia, when he signed his Christian Endeavor Week proclamation are (from left) Frank P. Wilson, Dr. Marvin H. Cave, the mayor, Ollie King, and Edward Campbell. Mr. Wilson and Miss King are Virginia Union officers; Dr. Cave is pastor of the Christian Fellowship Church in the city and Mr. Campbell is Christian Training Department chairman. The five societies sponsored birthday activities for the area.

How does an 86-year-old movement celebrate its anniversary? Christian Endeavorers marked the birthday of the movement by the celebration of Christian Endeavor Week January 29-February 5, using the theme "So Send I You."

Typical activities as reported by various groups are recorded here. These were multiplied hundreds of times by youth and adults throughout the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

A Week of Activities

The Junior and High School Endeavorers of Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church, Boyertown, Pennsylvania, began the week's observance by participation in the church service January 29. A group attended a weekend retreat at Pinebrook sponsored by the Berks and Chester County unions. Members also participated in the Berks County birthday party. A combined banquet with the Pleasantville Church brought together 76 for an evening of fellowship. Through the cooperation of the pastor, Rev. William Ryan, Endeavorers were given many opportunities to serve throughout the week. On Sunday evening, February 5, there was a Christian Endeavor Rally which included a talk on Christian Endeavor principles.

Erie County (Pennsylvania) planned a series of meetings at the Erie City Mission. The county choir sang each night January 29-February 3 and special testimonies were given by loca leaders. The week climaxed with banquet at the W.L.D. Ranch o Saturday evening.

West Coast Activities

Reports from Douglas (Oregon) Un ion indicate many activities. Fir Christian Church of Roseburg starte off the week with a well attende breakfast for the young people an had a birthday party after church tha evening with cake and punch. Elkto Christian Church held a dedicatio and pledge-signing service and th Junior Choir, made up of fourth t eighth grade Endeavorers, sang in th morning service. Westside Christia Church of Roseburg also had a specia youth service with many young peo ple participating.

Many activities marked the week i California. The Golden Gate are held a birthday celebration at Mir loma Reformed Church, San Fra cisco. The program included a pla entitled "The Birth of Christian En deavor." Speaker was Cecil A. Jeffer California field secretary.

Central California Endeavorers m for a Winter Conference near Sequo January 27-29. There were 172 attendance; Rev. Vern Gomez Bakersfield was the speaker and ma decisions were recorded. This was memorable weekend in the snow. F the Southern area the Junior Hig Camp at Tahquitz Pines February 3 was a great success with over 3 attending. A steak dinner was t feature of the San Luis Obispo ba quet at Vandenburg Village. Ke County used the annual banquet Jan ary 30 to receive gifts and pledg for the new year; they also held Bible study rally February 1.

From Across the Border

The Intermediate Society of t Fourth of Bruce (Ontario) Unit Brethren Church held a potluck s per February 3 with a missiona from British Guiana speaking.

February 18 this same group sponsored a youth day with four other societies as guests. They decorated the church basement with the theme "So Send I You" and red and white Christian Endeavor colors.

Waterloo County Union sponsored a turkey dinner at Highland Road United Church, Waterloo, on January 30 with 115 present. Special guests included Clyde Sherk, Canadian Union president, and Shirley Fretz, president of the Ontario Union. The speaker was Rev. Roy Murphy of Bethel Baptist Church. The birthday was celebrated by all the active unions in Ontario.

Down in Texas

"He Holds the Future" was the theme for the Dallas District Banquet February 2 at East Dallas Christian Church. Roger Cloud was toastmaster and Henry Saucier the songleader. Three talks on the theme were given, one by Mrs. Frank A. Kirsch, one by Leslie Loftin, and the third by Dr. Homer Vanderpool.

Endeavorers of La Marque arranged for Mayor James C. Crowder to issue a proclamation. The youth of Paul's Union Church participated in the morning and evening services January 29. Posters were made by the young people and placed throughout the city.

San Jacinto District scheduled a birthday party February 3 in place of the usual banquet. This was held at Nesseler Civic Center in Texas City. A unique feature was a large cardboard birthday cake to collect gifts for the International Society; an offering of $100 was contributed for this purpose. Each church presented a skit or special music for the program.

President Tours Pennsylvania

The International Society president, Arch J. McQuilkin, spent Christian Endeavor Week touring his home state. He began at the weekend conference of Berks-Chester County January 27-29 at Pinebrook where over 400 youth gathered for inspiration and study. On Sunday evening, January 29, he spoke at Christ's Lutheran Church in Harrisburg; on Monday he met with Washington, Fayette, and Westmoreland County Endeavorers in Connellsville; Tuesday was a Butler County Alumni dinner; Wednesday evening he was with Mercer County Endeavorers and Thursday evening at a Franklin County banquet; an anniversary banquet Friday evening for Lehigh Valley and activities Saturday in Lebanon County and Sunday in Lancaster County concluded a busy week for the president. Each day across the state the response was very

Here and There

The youth of Berkeley (Missouri) Presbyterian Church took charge of both morning worship services on January 29. At the combined Christian Endeavor meeting that evening the Junior High group gave a play emphasizing the Tenth Legion. Fun night was held January 31 at a local junior high school gym; 30 juniors participated from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. and 40 or more older youth from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m., with each group going back to the church for refreshments and devotions.

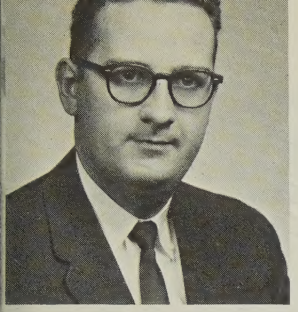
Brooklyn (New York) Union's Recreation Department sponsored a birthday party January 28 at Glenmore Avenue Presbyterian Church. Activities included games, singing, slides, and refreshments, all under the direction of William Spann, Mildred Scott, and Eva Williams.

When the Village Presbyterian Endeavorers of Richmond, Virginia, took charge of the January 29 worship service, it was necessary to find several boxes for Deborah Colgin to stand on behind the pulpit when she, a Junior herself, gave the Junior Sermon. The Junior High group had complete charge of the service with four of the young people giving the message. The society provided red and white church flowers and the bulletin covers. There was a table display about Christian Endeavor in the lobby of the church and a window display in a downtown store.

The Richmond area birthday ba quet attracted the largest crowd i recent years — about 140. It was he at the Third Presbyterian Church Petersburg. Alice Whitley Jones w in charge; the guest speakers we Mrs. Merrill H. Grubbs and fami from Korea who discussed the top "A Missionary Family in Korea" a showed native dress and mementoes

The annual banquet of the Alp Alumni Council of National Ci Christian Church, Washington, D.C was held February 3. Elsie Gree who attended every annual banqu for the past 50 years, was honore with an orchid corsage. This gro observed the anniversary of the mov ment at their January 9 meeting, wh Mrs. Forrest Warner and her daught Diane reported on the Belfast Co vention.

Included in the birthday we events sponsored by the Christi Fellowship Church of Alexandria, V ginia, was a banquet with Mrs. Ern R. Bryan, honorary field secretary the World's Union, as speaker. T opening day of the celebration w devoted to missions with Rev. Ral Montanus, blind evangelist, speakin the last day the Junior society led joint worship service for the f societies of the church and the Tee society conducted the evening servi



Christian Tirre Named Executive Secretary

Rev. Christian A. Tirre was named executive secretary of the International Society of Christian Endeavor by the Executive Committee at its meeting March 10-11 in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Tirre, who is a United Presbyterian Church minister with a wide background of Christian Endeavor experience, joined the International Society staff almost five years ago. In his new position he will serve as chief executive officer of the International Society, with special responsibilities in the areas of public relations and promotion. He will continue to serve as educational secretary, in charge of the total educational program including the current Christian Youth Witness Program, and as editor of the CE MEETINGS quarterlies, publisher, and tour director.

Mr. Tirre studied at Bloomfield College, Bloomfield, New Jersey, graduating in 1956 with an A.B. degree. He graduated in 1960 from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, with a B.D. degree, and served churches at Camden and Somerville, Ohio, before coming to the International Society September 1, 1962.

Mr. Tirre's Christian Endeavor experiences are many. He served as treasurer of his local society in Jersey City and later as president of the New Jersey Youth Assembly. His first International Convention was Denver in 1953; he was official photographer for colored slides for the Portland, Philadelphia, and Chicago Conventions and prepared visual reports following these events. At Chicago he also served as a conference leader. Mr. Tirre has twice been a youth delegate from New Jersey to the Executives' Program Council. He attended a number of Middle Atlantic Regional Conferences while in New Jersey and several Southern Regional Conferences when he was serving 1957-59 as part-time field secretary for the Kentucky Union. He served as editor of the Ohio Union's state paper and chairman of the Program Committee for their 1962 state convention.

In 1966 Mr. Tirre participated in the World's Christian Endeavor Convention in Belfast, Northern Ireland, and served as assistant director of the Vikingland Tour. Also last summer he journeyed to Hawaii for meetings with Endeavorers. In 1963 he traveled to the Holy Land.

Christian Endeavor introduced Mr. Tirre to his wife, the former Joanne Pumphrey of Broseley, Missouri. They met at a Christian Endeavor camp of General Baptists where he was a conference leader and were married in 1959. Mrs. Tirre holds a B.S. degree in elementary education and an M.Ed. degree in guidance. She is a guidance counselor at Duxberry and Huy elementary schools in Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Tirre is a former vice-president of the Missouri Christian Endeavor Union and is currently serving as Supply Department superintendent for the Ohio Union.

The Tirres are active in St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, a new congregation in Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Tirre is also the church organist.

NEWS

ATTENDANCE INCREASE from 30 to 174 in recent months is the report from Tri-County under the leadership of these officers (from left): Pat Hughes, secretary; Richard McGaha, president; Frances MaGaha, reporter; and James Bass, vice-president. The group held its second annual Christian Endeavor Week banquet February 10 in Morristown.

Where the Day Begins

On February 10 the World Day of Prayer Services began in the Tonga Islands, as they do each year, since this country is closest to the international date line.

The service used this year around the world was written by the late queen, Her Majesty Queen Salote Tupou, only months before her death.

Queen Salote brought a strong Christian commitment to her 47-year rule. She was president of the Christian Endeavor of Tonga.

Before she left for New Zealand where she died, she gave again warm witness to her faith. Realizing she might never return to her "Friendly Islands," she said she had prepared over a long period of time, for the day when God would call her.

"I shall know why God calls me when the day comes and I have made preparation for that day. I did not make it on my own strength, but preparation was made through the purifying blood of Jesus. Whatever the time or place, I shall answer God's call readily with, 'Here am I.'

"I have relinquished the family, the country and the kingdom; these are temporal things and it is only God doing if I have been of any use to them. In this journey through the dread valley there is no fear or doubt because I know that my Lord is there. These are my riches — the joy and peace of dwelling with Him in the days. And I testify with certainty that my life is firmly fixed in Him."

NINETEENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Hawaiian Christian Endeavor Association was held last November at Haili Church, Hilo, Hawaii. Delegates came from the various islands. Mrs. Mealii Kalama of Honolulu was reelected president for 1966-67. A number of delegates from Hawaii will be participating in the International Convention in Detroit this July.

A PERSONAL PAPER DRIVE was used by the Blodgett family to raise money for Christian Endeavor International. Roland P. Blodgett, assisted by daughters Sandra Lee, 7, and Susan Lyn, 15, earned $5 by their hard work.

Detroit Resolutions

Rev. Clair E. Beatty of 105 East Wright Street, Covington, Ohio 45318, has been named chairman of the Resolutions Committee for the International Convention in Detroit this July. He will be happy to receive any suggestions for consideration by the Committee, which will report to the Corporation meeting on Wednesday afternoon, July 5.

Lillian Diebold Poling Memorial Fund

Shortly after the death of Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, the Lillian Diebold Poling Memorial Fund was established for those who wished to honor the memory of Mrs. Poling. The International Society's Executive Committee has requested that the Extension and Perpetuation Fund of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, Inc., accept the responsibility of receiving and administering this Fund.

The E & P Fund was set up in 1936 for the purpose of accumulating capital funds to support the long-range activity of Christian Endeavor. All E & P funds are properly invested, with all earnings, dividends, and interest being dedicated to the International Society or the World's Union. During 1966 over $2,500 earnings were received by the International Society and the World's Union from these invested funds. During the first three months of 1967, over $1,800 in additional earnings has been sent to the Columbus office. Thus, the E & P Fund helps Christian Endeavor currently with the total funds remaining intact for additional earnings in the future.

Those interested in contributing to the Lillian Diebold Poling Memorial Fund may send checks to the E & P Fund through the Columbus office, or directly to Merritt L. Smith, long-time secretary of the E & P Fund, at 2948 Northampton Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20015.

A HEARTY THANK YOU

To all the local poster plant owners who cooperated in the 1967 Outdoor Poster Program, a hearty thank you!

Hundreds of Christian Endeavor posters were on display in the United States and Canada during January and February. This public relations program is made possible through the generous contribution of space by local plant owners, most of whom are members of the Outdoor Advertising Association of America, Inc., and by Christian Endeavorers who provide funds to cover the cost of the posters themselves.

The outdoor advertising companies which participated in the 1967 Program are listed below. For their help in bringing the Christian Endeavor story to millions who travel along the streets and highways, Endeavorers express gratitude and appreciation.

Detroit Rally Boosts Convention

A Detroit '67 Rally sponsored by the local union was held March 11 at Trinity Methodist Church, Highland Park, Michigan.

The featured speaker was Arch J. McQuilkin, president of the International Society. Bishop Clyde W. Meadows, World's Union president, led the singspiration and joined with Rev. Martin Magnus, local minister, in a duet during the pep rally which followed. Adding to the event was the fine music by the church choir and the organist.

Endeavorers were present from various areas of Michigan and from northern Ohio and Indiana. Rev. Christian A. Tirre and Phyllis I. Rike, International Society Staff members, also participated.

From the Desk of.....

ARCH J. McQUILKIN

Hello and Greetings:

We want to keep you informed and up to date about our situation at Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. We know you are most interested.

At Headquarters we have two Staff members and eight associates — a total of ten employees. Each carries a very heavy work load; each loves the Lord and is dedicated and committed to the work of Christian Endeavor. In the office there is a Christ-like attitude and the atmosphere and the cooperation are just wonderful.

Rev. Christian A. Tirre has been named executive secretary of the International Society. We now have a resident Staff member who will give guidance and direction to our work.

Chris, as we call and know and love him, will serve as chief executive officer of the International Society, with special responsibilities in the areas of public relations and promotion. He will continue to serve as editor of the CE MEETINGS quarterlies, publisher, tour director, and educational secretary, including responsibility for the Christian Youth Witness Program.

Chris has been a Staff member for five years and is well equipped and qualified for these many duties and responsibilities. He is very familiar with and has a thorough knowledge of our operation.

We are most fortunate, for we will have efficient and valuable assistance from Staff member Phyllis I. Rike. A whole book could be written about her loyalty and qualifications. She retains her responsibilities as treasurer, administrative secretary, clerk of the corporation, and editor of THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORLD.

Until our convention in Detroit July 3-7, I will continue as general secretary on a volunteer part-time basis and will lend support to the Staff.

Please put Chris and Phyllis on your prayer list and remember them daily. They face a tremendous work load. Even though we have cut program and services we realize that the solution to the work load is the employment of an additional Staff person. We are sorry to report that at this time finances make it impossible to move in this direction.

Please pray without ceasing.

Most sincerely,

Arch J. McQuilkin
